Seminar Theme

Delhi is a city with glorious past. It has also seen the rise and fall of many empires. The kingdom to democracy in a journey that narrates its own story. The historical monuments, the old markets of Chandni Chowk and the food street etc. all are the reflection of pride of Delhi. Delhi has been the capital city of different kingdom and dynasties, and that is why it is being said that, 'Delhi is a city of cities'. The issue concerning Delhi and its significance needs to be ponder upon for better understanding of Delhi through the ages.

The socio political changes affected the lives of the original inhabitants of the city as well as the emigrants, and they have started to narrate their own stories. The insights into the study of different Delhi will highlight the different aspects of Delhi, in the areas of cultures, politics, economy and society etc.
